

LUNCHEON LECTURES 2023-24

Registration fees :

1 Luncheon Lecture=$45
Luncheon Lecture series=$140
Lunch Served
Continental breakfast on May 10th

 Dec. 1st, Jan. 19th, March 1st, May 10th

 WISD, 1819 S. Wagner, Ann Arbor

Friday
Dec. 1st
12-2 p.m.

Unpacking Implicit Bias: Creating Inclusive Environments

This workshop is designed to help participants recognize, understand, and address implicit biases, with the overarching goal of fostering inclusive environments in different settings.

SPEAKER

Dr. Kimberly Jones, Ph.D., J.D.
Washtenaw County Sheriff Office

Friday
Jan. 19th
12-2 p.m.

Helping Children Manage Stress

This workshop will cover why kids and adults are stressed and how to create environments and take actions to mediate the stress of our children & ourselves.

SPEAKER

Courtney Aldrich, MA
Educational Psychology

Friday
Mar. 1st
12-2 p.m.

Supporting Teens Experiencing Dating Violence

This workshop will cover the characteristics & dynamics of teen dating violence, strategies for parents & professionals, understanding consent and healthy relationships.

SPEAKER

Laura P. Hoehner-Dane, MA, NPMG,
LMSW-Safe House Center

Friday
May 10th
10 a.m.--
12:00 p.m.

How To Recognize child Maltreatment

This workshop will discuss the prevalence of child maltreatment, the impact on children, along with how to recognize signs of abusive injury & when to be concerned.

SPEAKER

Carla A. Parkin-Joseph, MD, FAAP
Andrea Duncan, MSN, RN, CPNP
Martha Kerr, LMSW

SCECH & Social Work Clock Hours Available

Email: robin@washtenawchildren.org

Register now at :

www.washtenawchildren.org